

Writing Creatively Workshop

REGISTRATION FORM

Please return this form by Monday 22 March 2010

Payment in advance is required to secure your place.

Name
Address
Phone No(s)
Email
Adult/Student
Amount paid	$ cash or cheque (please circle)

Cost $50 per Adult and $25 Student. [includes lunch and refreshments]

Payment: pay in person at Dalby Friendly Society Dispensary, Cunningham Street, Dalby or send a cheque by post to Regional Arts Council Dalby Inc, PO Box 509 Dalby.

Program Details

SATURDAY, 27 March, 10am to 3pm | Presented by Dr Kelly McWilliams (USQ)

Dr Kelly McWilliam: Lecturer in Communication (& Media Studies) with, among other qualifications, a Graduate Certificate in Writing, Editing, and Publishing. Kelly has previously worked as an editor and manuscript assessor and has written book reviews for the Courier-Mail over several years.

- Learn creative writing basics and tips to nurture writing skills
- Understand your own inventive abilities
- Practice ways to think and write originally
- Writing articles for magazines and newspapers
- Understanding the magazine/news market
- How to pitch your article or idea to a magazine and sell it... and more!

SUNDAY, 28 March, 9am to 1.00 pm | Presented by Dave Burton

Dave Burton: Playwriter. Dave is a graduate of the creative arts who is carving out quite an impressive early career in playwriting – he is a state and national playwright award winner who wrote this year’s Artsworx production of Spirits in Bare Feet which played to wide acclaim and huge audience support.

- Tap into your imagination
- Draw from everyday experiences and memories
- Examine different types of creative writing
- Give structure to your writing
- Use characters and dialogue

Proudly supported by the University of Southern Queensland and the Dalby Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

Presented by Dalby Regional Arts Council Inc
Enquiries to Kerry Suttor 4663 2245 or 0448 629 647